JOINING A FRATERNITY OR SORORITY CAN BE ONE OF THE BEST WAYS TO FIND YOUR “HOME AWAY FROM HOME” AT OREGON STATE AND MAKE A LARGE CAMPUS FEEL MUCH SMALLER. THERE ARE 48 CHAPTERS ON CAMPUS THAT ARE A MEMBER OF ONE OF FIVE COMMUNITIES: THE INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL (IFC), THE NATIONAL PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL (NPHC), THE PANHELLENIC COUNCIL (PHC), AND THE UNIFIED GREEK COUNCIL (UGC), OR OUR INDEPENDENT ORGANIZATIONS. WE BELIEVE THERE IS A PLACE FOR EVERYONE IN OUR DIVERSE COMMUNITY OF OVER 3,000 STUDENTS.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES HAVE A RICH HISTORY AT OSU AND HAVE BEEN ON CAMPUS FOR OVER 100 YEARS. THE FIRST NATIONAL ORGANIZATION, ALPHA CHI OMEGA, WAS ESTABLISHED ON CAMPUS IN 1915. OUR COMMUNITY SHARES SEVERAL CORE PRINCIPLES: FRIENDSHIP, SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP, INCLUSIVITY, PHILANTHROPY AND SERVICE. THE COMMUNITY SHARED VISION STATEMENT IS: UNITED BY A COMMON BOND, WE ARE A DIVERSE COMMUNITY DEDICATED TO SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE. OUR MEMBERS LIVE THESE VALUES EACH DAY AND STRIVE TOWARDS THIS VISION IN THE EVENTS AND PROGRAMS THEY PLAN AND IN THE MEMBERSHIP EXPERIENCES OUR CHAPTERS OFFER. MEMBERSHIP IN A FRATERNITY OR SORORITY NOT ONLY ALLOWS YOU TO GET MORE INVOLVED AT OSU, BUT ALSO WITHIN THE LOCAL CORVALLIS COMMUNITY. STUDIES SHOW THAT STUDENTS WHO ARE ENGAGED WITH STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS, LIKE FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES, ARE MORE SUCCESSFUL ACADEMICALLY AND ARE MORE LIKELY TO GRADUATE.

COLLEGE IS A TIME TO BUILD MEMORIES AND GAIN FRIENDS THAT WILL LAST A LIFETIME. WE KNOW THAT COLLEGE IS FULL OF CHOICES, AND WE ARE GLAD YOU’VE MADE THE CHOICE TO GET TO KNOW OUR CHAPTERS. WE URGE YOU TO GET TO KNOW OUR ORGANIZATIONS FOR YOURSELF AND MAKE THE BEST DECISION FOR YOU ABOUT WHICH GROUP TO JOIN.

PLEASE TAKE TIME TO BROWSE THROUGH THIS BOOK AND ACCOMPLISH YOURSELF WITH ALL THAT FRATERNITY AND SORORITY LIFE HAS TO OFFER. IF YOU’RE STILL NOT SURE IF ‘GOING GREEK’ IS RIGHT FOR YOU, WE ENCOURAGE YOU TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THESE ORGANIZATIONS BY CHECKING OUT THE FALL RECRUITMENT/MEMBERSHIP INTAKE PROCESSES.

ONCE AGAIN, WELCOME TO OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY. WE OFFER YOU OUR BEST WISHES FOR EVERY SUCCESS DURING YOUR TIME HERE. AND GET USED TO SAYING IT – “GO BEAVS!”

WELCOME TO BEAVER NATION!

Joining a fraternity or sorority can be one of the best ways to find your “home away from home” at Oregon State and make a large campus feel much smaller. There are 48 chapters on campus that are a member of one of five communities: the Interfraternity Council (IFC), the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), the Panhellenic Council (PHC), and the Unified Greek Council (UGC), or our Independent Organizations. We believe there is a place for everyone in our diverse community of over 3,000 students.

Fraternities and sororities have a rich history at OSU and have been on campus for over 100 years. The first national organization, Alpha Chi Omega, was established on campus in 1915. Our community shares several core principles: Friendship, Scholarship, Leadership, Inclusivity, Philanthropy and Service. The community shared vision statement is: United by a common bond, we are a diverse community dedicated to scholarship, leadership and service. Our members live these values each day and strive towards this vision in the events and programs they plan and in the membership experiences our chapters offer. Membership in a fraternity or sorority not only allows you to get more involved at OSU, but also within the local Corvallis community. Studies show that students who are engaged with student organizations, like fraternities and sororities, are more successful academically and are more likely to graduate.

College is a time to build memories and gain friends that will last a lifetime. We know that college is full of choices, and we are glad you’ve made the choice to get to know our chapters. We urge you to get to know our organizations for yourself and make the best decision for you about which group to join.

Please take time to browse through this book and acquaint yourself with all that fraternity and sorority life has to offer. If you’re still not sure if ‘going Greek’ is right for you, we encourage you to learn more about these organizations by checking out the fall recruitment/membership intake processes.

Once again, welcome to Oregon State University. We offer you our best wishes for every success during your time here. And get used to saying it – “Go Beavs!”
Sororities & fraternities at OSU share six core community values:

Scholarship: Fraternities and sororities at Oregon State University strive for academic excellence. Each chapter has specific grade requirements for students to achieve and maintain active membership and provides their members with resources to promote academic success. Fraternity and sorority membership offers many options to help new members transition academically from high school to college, including educational programs and workshops, study hours, tutoring programs, and more. As a result, the All-Greek GPA is consistently at or above the All-Undergraduate average.

Leadership: Developing leadership skills in all members is a fundamental goal of every organization. Fraternities and sororities offer a variety of leadership positions within their chapters and opportunities also exist in the Fraternity/Sorority Community at large. Members are also leaders on campus, currently holding leadership positions in over 260 student organizations at OSU.

Inclusivity: United by a common bond, the OSU Greek community is a diverse community that strives for inclusivity of all people regardless of race, culture, identity, gender, or sexual orientation. We hope to promote a welcoming environment for all students on campus where all members and guests feel supported and accepted.
Philanthropy: Fraternities and sororities sponsor a variety of philanthropic fundraisers that raise over $250,000 annually to support local and national nonprofit organizations. These fundraisers include athletic tournaments, haunted houses, lip sync competitions, and more.

Community Service: In conjunction with philanthropy, each fraternity and sorority participates in numerous community service events each year to engage with the Corvallis and surrounding communities. Last year, OSU’s Fraternity and Sorority Community logged more than 40,000 hours of community service. Commitment to civic engagement encourages growth as servant leaders and allows members to help others in the world around us.

Friendship: With a large student body at OSU, it is easy for new students to be overwhelmed with life on campus. Fraternity and sorority membership eases the transition and enriches the college experience by encouraging the development of sincere relationships within a tight-knit community of over 3,000 students. The lifelong bonds of brotherhood and sisterhood made in fraternities and sororities are unmatched by any other student organization.
The National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), also known as the Divine 9 or D9, is the governing council for the historically African-American fraternities and sororities at OSU. NPHC chapters are inclusive; you aren’t required to identify with a specific racial identity to qualify for membership. Fraternities and sororities affiliated with the NPHC do not participate in a formal recruitment process. NPHC chapters identify new members throughout the year, engaging in a membership intake process semi-annually. If you are interested in a sorority or fraternity connected to this council, it’s important to be on the lookout for their events, introduce yourself when they are tabling, and reach out to them based on the contact information listed next to their chapter profile entry. NPHC organizations typically do not accept a student for membership until the student has completed at least 12-24 hours of college credit with a minimum grade point average.

Save the Date!
Divine 9 chapters will host an informational program on Friday, September 30 at the Lonnie B. Harris Black Cultural Center on campus. This event is a great opportunity to meet the D9 chapters and learn about the history of these organizations and the joining requirements.

NPHC chapters are unhoused and use the Lonnie B. Harris Black Cultural Center as a central place to meet and host events. See a map on page 31 for the location of this center.

The Unified Greek Council (UGC) is the governing council for the culturally-based and multicultural fraternities and sororities at OSU, including chapters with Latino/a, South Asian, and Native American membership interests. UGC chapters are inclusive; you don’t need to identify with a specific cultural or racial identity to qualify for membership. Fraternities and sororities affiliated with the UGC do not participate in a formal recruitment process and identify new members throughout the year, engaging in a membership intake process semi-annually. If you are interested in a sorority or fraternity connected to this council, it’s important to be on the lookout for their events, introduce yourself when they are tabling, and reach out to them based on the contact information listed next to their chapter profile entry.

Visit stuorgs.oregonstate.edu/ugc for more information on these organizations and how to join.

The UGC chapters are unhoused and often meet at one of the cultural and resource centers on campus such as the Native American Longhouse, Asian Pacific Cultural Center, Centro Cultural Cesar Chavez, and more. See a map on page 31 for a full listing of these centers.

Independent chapters are Greek-lettered organizations with various academic, cultural, and interest-based focuses that have chosen to not have membership in any of the Greek governing bodies. Fraternities and sororities that are independent do not participate in a formal recruitment process and identify new members throughout the year, engaging in a membership recruitment and intake process semi-annually. If you are interested in a sorority or fraternity connected to this council, it’s important to be on the lookout for their events, introduce yourself when they are tabling, and reach out to them based on the contact information listed next to their chapter profile entry.

Visit oregonstate.edu/cfsl for more information about these organizations and how to join.

Sigma Delta Omega, Chi Theta Phi & Xi Chi Iota are each local organizations that were founded at Oregon State and remain the only chapters in existence of these organizations.

Independent chapters are unhoused and often meet in the Memorial Union or in the buildings where members have the majority of their classes.

GREEK SPEAK

Active: A fully initiated undergraduate member of a fraternity or sorority

Alumnus/Alumna: A member of a fraternity or sorority who has graduated from college

Bid: A formal invitation to membership in a fraternity or sorority

Big: An initiated member of a fraternity or sorority who serves as a mentor to a Potential/Prospective New Member, guiding them through the new member program and initiation

Chant: A call used by members of culturally-based organizations or NPHC chapters to acknowledge or gain the attention of others; some organizations have more than one chant

Chapter: The local collegiate membership unit of a national or international fraternity or sorority

Crossing: Ceremony during which new members of culturally-based and historically black Greek-letter organizations become active, life-long members of their organization

Dues: The monetary costs of membership in a fraternity or sorority that are used to fund the costs of operation, events, and other activities

Governing Council: Generally supports and acts as a voice for organizations within it, including being the official liaison between the university and the members of the member organizations

Hazing: Unethical and forbidden mental or physical activities that are strictly prohibited by Oregon State University, the local and state government, and all OSU Greek councils and organizations. Please refer to the Oregon State University Student Conduct Code for the full definition of hazing.

Independent Chapter: Fraternities and sororities that are not affiliated with a governing council

Initiation: A traditional ritual or formal ceremony that brings a new member into full Greek membership
Intake: Term for the process by which NPHC, UGC, and independent chapters recruit, select, educate, and initiate new members of their organizations

Interfraternity Council (IFC): Peer-elected governing council for traditionally housed fraternities that currently supports 21 men’s chapters at OSU

Legacy: An immediate relative of an initiated member of a fraternity or sorority, defined slightly differently by each individual organization

Line: The new member class of a culturally-based or historically black organization

Little: Short for “Little Brother/Sister” – a new member who is being mentored by an older member of their organization

National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC): The governing body of the nine historically African American fraternities and sororities, also known as the “Divine Nine”

Neophyte: A new member of a culturally-based or historically black organization which usually defines that stage between the completion of new member/pledge requirements and being initiated

New Member: An individual who has accepted a bid to join a fraternity or sorority but who has not yet been initiated; also called an associate member

New Member Presentation (also called a Probate): A presentation that celebrates and welcomes new members into the Multicultural Greek or NPHC Community. A general set up of a new member presentation consist of welcoming fellow Greeks, local and national chapter history, and revealing of the new member(s).

Order of Omega: A national honor society for fraternity and sorority members who maintain a GPA above the All-Greek average, have distinguished themselves as leaders in the OSU Greek community, have exemplary character, and hold either junior or senior academic standing

Panhellenic Council (PHC): Peer-elected governing council for traditionally housed sororities that currently supports 12 women’s chapters at OSU

Philanthropy: A charity, fundraising, or community service event put on by a chapter

Potential New Member (PNM): A person who is interested in joining a Greek-letter organization, and will participate in intake or recruitment

Recruitment Guide (Gamma Chi): A neutral representative of a Panhellenic sorority who temporarily leaves her affiliation to guide and support PNMs through recruitment

Ritual: The traditional rites and ceremonies of a fraternity or sorority; these are almost always private and known only to initiated members of a fraternal organization

Stepping: Stepping is a tradition where members synchronize their moves so that they are performing their own dance moves without music. In stepping the members will clap, stomp with their feet, jump, chant (not to be confused with saluting) and create their own beat by doing so. Stepping is traditionally done by NPHC organizations, but multicultural Greeks are also known to do it.

Saluting: A unique art of reciting information in a line formation. Members perform intense, in-sync, and sharp movements with greetings attributing to others, honoring accomplishments, or cherishing the cultural history, heritage, and traditions of the organization.

Unified Greek Council (UGC): The governing body of 6 culturally-based organization designed to unite the diverse organizations and promote multicultural awareness to the OSU community
Linus Pauling was one of the greatest scientists and humanitarians in history, publishing over 1200 academic papers and books, assisting in the founding of quantum chemistry and molecular biology, and being a strong social activist on behalf of world peace and human rights. To date, he remains the only person to have been awarded two unshared Nobel Prizes, for Chemistry (1954) and Peace (1962).

In 1922, Pauling graduated from Oregon State University -- then the Oregon Agricultural College -- with a degree in chemical engineering. During his time at OAC, he got involved with a local fraternity, Gamma Tau Beta, and became a founder of the Oregon State chapter of Delta Upsilon Fraternity when he petitioned to affiliate Gamma Tau Beta with Delta Upsilon. Pauling always spoke highly of his time in fraternity life, writing:

“My brothers in Gamma Tau Beta and Delta Upsilon helped me to develop my personality and to communicate with other people more effectively. In particular, they encouraged me to participate in the college activities in public speaking and oratory and to develop my confidence in my abilities.”

Dr. Pauling’s legacy at OSU lives on through the Linus Pauling Institute (LPI), a research institute he cofounded that explores how micronutrients and phytochemicals affect human health and chronic disease prevention. LPI has been on OSU’s campus since 1996 and in its permanent home in the Linus Pauling Science Center since 2011.
Student Leader Spotlight on Rachel Grisham

"Being a member of Sigma Delta Omega has allowed me to experience one of the most rewarding opportunities: being a role model for young children that remind me so much of myself as a young girl, which allows me to inspire and excite young women to pursue their dreams."

1. Are fraternities and sororities like what I see on TV and in movies?

No. Every fraternity and sorority is different and similar in many ways. Just like anything that is seen on TV, fraternities and sororities are more than just their stereotypes. The best way to find out what a fraternity or sorority is like is to ask current members.

2. If fraternity and sorority life is so great, why don’t more people join?

Just like any other organization on campus, it’s about finding a place where you belong, finding a place that shares or has similar values to yours, finding a connection with the people and organization. Not everyone is going to find a connection to a fraternity or sorority. We do encourage that everyone gives it a try, but we acknowledge that fraternity and sorority life isn’t for everyone.

3. How do I find the right chapter for me?

The best way is to ask current and past members. Recruitment events are a great way to meet people and ask questions. At the end of the day, it matters most that you find a group that you connect with and that shares similar values with you.

4. If I go through recruitment am I guaranteed an invitation to join a fraternity or sorority?

Just as you’re looking for a perfect fit, these organizations are also looking for great individuals. Membership criteria can change from chapter to chapter, but all groups will have a minimum GPA requirement, some will be focusing on previous or other campus involvement, others more on community service, leadership experience, etc. The most important thing is to be your genuine self throughout the recruitment/intake process and the right chapter for you will embrace you for you who you are.

5. If I am an international student, can I join a fraternity/sorority?

Yes, anyone who is registered as a full-time student is allow to go through recruitment. We welcome and encourage international students to take part in Fraternity and Sorority Life.

6. What opportunities are there after I graduate?

Fraternity and sorority life is a lifetime commitment with limitless opportunities. Following graduation, many organizations encourage their graduating members to join their local alumni association, as well as regional, district, or national positions and volunteer to support undergraduate members.
7. My family has a negative view on fraternity/sorority life. What can I tell them?

We know that there are plenty of misconceptions about Fraternity & Sorority that can be found in popular media or pop culture today. We are not saying that we are perfect; however, we hope that the Oregon State students are working hard to fight many of these stereotypes. Greeks can be found giving back to the community through community service, having brotherhood/sisterhood events, promoting social justice and equity, and excelling at academics. We also are like a family away from home; joining a fraternity or sorority will help you connect you to a group of peers with similar values. We hope that you will check out the chapters for yourself and make your own decision.

8. Do I have to go to all recruitment events? What if I can’t make it to a recruitment event?

The best way to find out if an organization is for you is to attend as many of the chapter’s events as possible. This will help you see if an organization is a good fit for you. However, it is up to you to attend or choose to attend recruitment events. You should never skip class to attend an event. Your education comes first! It is a good idea to let the recruitment chair that you would like to attend a recruitment event, but that you have time conflicts with the set time. Keep in mind, some organizations require you to meet certain criteria, for example attending an informational program, community service event, etc. before you are eligible for membership.

9. How much does it cost to join a fraternity or sorority?

It is important for potential members and parents to be as informed as possible regarding the costs associated with obtaining a college education. Understanding the financial obligations associated with fraternity and sorority membership is just as important. Each individual joining a fraternity or sorority should be aware of the dues, fees and other expenses that are involved and should consider these when making financial plans to attend college. During the recruitment or membership intake process, a potential member should ask members about the financial obligations and payment options. Each chapter sets its own fees and payment schedules. The average cost for the first term of joining a chapter is usually higher due to one-time expenses and fees. Specific membership fees and costs are shared during council-sponsored recruitment processes. For housed chapters, dues and live-in fees are usually less than the cost to live on-campus in a residence hall.
